WINE LIST

You're holding in your hands the first wine list ever curated in its entirety by one of the world's most acclaimed wine critics, James Suckling, CEO/ Editor JamesSuckling.com.

He has rated more than 200,000 wines in his career and annually reviews more than 22,000 wines from key wine regions in France, Italy, Spain, Argentina, Chile, California, and Germany, even Thailand.

He rates the wines on a 100-point system: 95 points or more, fantastic quality; 90 points or more, outstanding quality, and 85 points or more, very good quality.

All wines featured on this list received a score of a minimum of 90 points and represent a very personal selection of wines that James enjoys drinking on his visits to The Nai Harn.

Instead of using traditional categories for wines in the list, James has organized them by style and usage, whether it's a fresh and crisp Thai Colombard for the pool or a structured red Bordeaux at dinner.

We hope you enjoy the selection.

Jermann Bianco Venezia-Giulia Vintage Tunina 2014, 96 points

This is crazy on the nose with dried lemons, volcanic salt, soy sauce and lycee. Full-bodied, dense and beautiful. A fabulous white showing the class and depth that it has oozed for decades. Truly one of Italy's best whites yet always subtle and complex.

150 ml / THB 875
75 ml / THB 438

Dönnhoff Riesling Nahe Felsenberg "Felsentürmchen" Schlossböckelheim GG, 2016, 96 Points

Clearly the best dry wine I ever tasted from this great site! Perfectly ripe yellow peach nose with a delicate hint of smoke. Packed with ripe fruit, the muscularity of an Olympic sprinter, but this wine will go on and on long after those sprinters go into retirement. The dazzling acidity turns the finish into a fireworks display of minerals.

150 ml / THB 1,470
75 ml / THB 735

SWEET WINE

Château Climens Barsac 2011, France, 96 Points

A dense, racy, sweet white with dried-apple, apricot and honey character. Full, very sweet and fresh. Tangy, spicy aftertaste. Shows lots of subtle, intense botrytis-spice character on the finish

150 ml / THB 2,300
75 ml / THB 1,150

75 ml / THB 900

Damilano Barolo Cannubi Riserva 1752 Vintage 2009, Italy, 98 Points

Lots of ripe berry character from the 2009 vintage with chocolate and cedar. Tobacco too. Full body, round and soft tannins and a light raisin and prune aftertaste. A big and juicy style. Decadent and sexy. Pretty crazy. One of the best 2009.

150 ml / THB 2,300
75 ml / THB 1,150

Lapostolle Clos Apalta Valle de Apalta 2015 Chile, 100 Points

There is a subtle complexity on the nose with currant, berry, fresh herb and wet earth aromas. Cut fresh flowers, too. Full body, dense and powerful. Incredible character here with such purity and polish. It goes on for minutes. Formed, sculptured yet soulful. A monumental wine for Chile. Unbelievable. More powerful than the 2014 which was 100 points. A blend of 46% carmenere, 30% cabernet sauvignon, 19% merlot and 5% cabernet franc. Made from biodynamically grown grapes.

150 ml / THB 1,700
