Ice-Breaking Tips for Networking

If you are new to the team or you want to take this opportunity to get closer to some people, you might need some ice-breaking tips.

- Don't be afraid to introduce yourself.

Go over to someone and say "hi". Chances are, they need some ice-breaking tips as well!

- Talk about the artwork.
Art is always very personal and open-ended. Lujo is full of unique artwork that you can comment on to begin an interesting conversation.

- This is delicious...
Our chefs will have prepared some gourmet delicacies for your team. Commenting on food always works. Follow it with a question like "Have you ever had a steak like this before?" and it may trigger some memories.

- Be interested.
Really listen to the other person when you ask questions, and take mental notes. Listening is the only way to make real connections – and this is what you should aim.

Who Is Ready to Have Some Fun?

Bodrum has always been known for its night life, and now with Lujo, there are even more options to choose from!

After dinner catch the live performances of our famous singers and bands. Some nights there are even concerts by the sea – on the Pier Lotus.

Or let us organize a custom party for your team at one of our many private party venues. They are equipped to fit up to 1000 people! At the arena, in the ballroom or at the white sand beach... We love parties! Tell us your ideas and we will make it come true in the best way possible. We would also love to work with you to come up with a unique concept and idea for your team party.

And of course, there is always Indigo – the most famous beach club of Bodrum. The music begins in the morning and lasts until the next day by the pool and the beach. Famous DJ's play their sets live as you dance to your heart's desire...

Don't worry, we have recovery kits and a juice bar for those who might need it the next day!

Goodbye... Till We Meet Again

You might have heard this quote by Zig Ziglar, the famous American author, salesman, and motivational speaker;

"People often say that motivation doesn't last. Well, neither does bathing – that's why we recommend it daily."

We hope you have had a wonderful time at Lujo. We are looking forward to seeing you among us again!
