Little Buddha Sur La Mer

The Little Buddha Sur La Mer beachfront restaurant is envisioned as a seamless fusion of architecture and nature, celebrating the serenity of the sea and the vibrant energy of coastal nightlife. The design is anchored by a series of elevated wooden decks that gently float above the sand, creating a fluid spatial experience that blurs the boundaries between indoor and outdoor zones.

Two distinct indoor bars are strategically placed on separate deck platforms, offering panoramic views of the shoreline while providing intimate, luxurious atmospheres for guests

Little Buddha Sur La Mer – Outdoor

Floating wooden decks meet the shoreline, creating a seamless connection between sea, sand, and social energy. Open-air lounges and beachfront dining flow effortlessly from serene days to vibrant coastal nights.

Little Buddha Sur La Mer – Indoor

Refined interiors unfold across elevated wooden decks, blending coastal views with intimate luxury. Two distinct indoor bars offer panoramic sea perspectives, warm textures, and a sophisticated atmosphere designed for immersive evenings and elevated nightlife.
